UNFINISHED BUSINESS

26

S.B. No. 765—Niello.

An act relating to state government.

Legislative Counsel's Digest of Assembly Amendments

SB 765, as it passed the Senate, established the giant garter snake (Thamnophis gigas) as the official state snake, and made related findings and declarations.

The Assembly amendments make nonsubstantive changes to those findings and declarations.

Vote: 21. Substantial substantive change: no.

(Final vote in the Senate: AYES—39. NOES—0.)

2025

Jul. 8—In Senate. Concurrence in Assembly amendments pending.

27

S.B. No. 757—Richardson.

An act relating to local government.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest of Assembly Amendments

SB 757, as it passed the Senate, authorized, until January 1, 2035, the legislative body of a city or county to collect fines for specified violations related to nuisance abatement using a nuisance abatement lien or a special assessment and required those fines and penalties to be used for specified housing purposes relating to supporting local enforcement of state and local building and fire code standards.

The Assembly amendments instead require those fines and penalties to be used to fund efforts within city or county government, as applicable, to streamline the issuance of permits for housing development or to establish a revolving loan fund for specified housing purposes.

SB 757, as it passed the Senate, required the city or county to create a process for granting a hardship waiver to reduce the amount of the above-described fine upon a specified showing by the responsible person. SB 757, as it passed the Senate, also required the enforcing entity to provide 30 days, as specified, to a person responsible for a continuing violation to correct or remedy the violation prior to the imposition of penalties, except as provided.

The Assembly amendments also require the hardship waiver to totally waive fines and penalties for persons with income equal to or less than 200% of the federal poverty line and require the enforcing entity to provide 60 days to correct or remedy continuing violations.

Vote: 21. Substantial substantive change: yes.

(Final vote in the Senate: AYES—39. NOES—0.)

2025

Jul. 14—In Senate. Concurrence in Assembly amendments pending.

28

S.B. No. 611—Richardson et al.

An act relating to land use, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest of Assembly Amendments

SB 611, as it passed the Senate, reenacted, with certain changes, certain previous law that prohibited a court in an action or proceeding to attack, review, set aside, void, or annul the acts or decisions of the local agency, including a charter city, in adopting an update to a community plan on the grounds of noncompliance with CEQA from, on the basis of that noncompliance, invalidating, reviewing, voiding, or setting aside the approval of a development project that meets certain requirements, as specified.

The Assembly amendments apply the bill’s provisions to local jurisdictions, as defined, instead of agencies, and apply the bill’s provisions to an update to a community plan that is adopted on or after January 1, 2025.

SPECIAL CONSENT CALENDAR #15

To be taken up Monday, August 25, 2025

270

S.B. No. 85—Umberg.

An act relating to civil actions.

Legislative Counsel's Digest of Assembly Amendments

SB 85, as it passed the Senate, authorized a court to direct a summons to be served in a manner that is reasonably calculated to give actual notice to the party to be served, including by electronic mail or other electronic technology, if no provision is made in statute for the service of summons, or if a plaintiff, using due diligence, has been unable to serve the summons using methods prescribed by statute. The bill excepted actions against public entities or agents or employees of public entities from these provisions.

The Assembly amendments require a motion for the court to exercise this authority and change the standard from due diligence to reasonable diligence if a plaintiff has been unable to serve the summons using methods prescribed by statute. The Assembly amendments require a plaintiff seeking to establish reasonable diligence to set forth facts that detail, as specified, the attempts to effect service pursuant to the methods prescribed by statute.

S.B. No. 394—Allen et al.

An act relating to water theft.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest of Assembly Amendments

SB 394, as it passed the Senate, among other things, authorized a utility to bring a civil action for damages against any person who commits, authorizes, solicits, aids, abets, or attempts to tamper with a fire hydrant, fire hydrant meter, or fire detector check, or diverts water, or causes water to be diverted, from a fire hydrant with knowledge of, or reason to believe, that the diversion or unauthorized connection existed at the time of use for nonfirefighting purposes or without authorization from the appropriate water system or fire department.

The Assembly amendments add to the list of acts for which a civil action may be brought to include connecting to a fire hydrant. The Assembly amendments, rather than require knowledge or reason to believe the use was for nonfirefighting purposes or without authorization, instead require the acts to occur without authorization from the utility that owns the fire hydrant. The Assembly amendments provide that a public agency having firefighting or emergency response responsibilities during a fire, or a qualified insurance resource, as defined, with approval from incident command or the authority having jurisdiction over the active fire incident, shall be considered to have authorization from the utility during an active fire incident.

Vote: 21. Substantial substantive change: yes.

S.B. No. 459—Grayson.

An act relating to peace officers.

Legislative Counsel's Digest of Assembly Amendments

SB 459, as it passed the Senate, gave a law enforcement personnel the right to refuse to disclose, and to prevent another from disclosing, a confidential communication between the law enforcement personnel and a peer support team member while the peer support team member was providing group peer support services, as defined. SB 459 also prohibited a recipient of peer support services from being examined as to any knowledge gained from other recipients of group peer support services without the consent of the person to whom the information relates.

The Assembly amendments remove the provisions prohibiting a recipient of peer support services from being examined as to any knowledge gained from other recipients of group peer support services, as specified. The Assembly amendments additionally gives a law enforcement personnel the right to refuse to disclose, and prevent another from disclosing, a confidential communication between law enforcement personnel recipients of group peer support services made while a peer support team member or mental health professional provides group peer support services to those recipients. The Assembly amendments authorize disclosure of a confidential communication in a juvenile delinquency proceeding, and expand the definition of confidential communication to include the communication between law enforcement personnel recipients of group peer support services, as specified.

Vote: 21. Substantial substantive change: yes.

S.B. No. 387—Rubio.

An act relating to healing arts.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest of Assembly Amendments

SB 387, as it passed the Senate, modified the requirements for a National Cancer Institute-designated comprehensive cancer center to qualify as an academic medical center, which the Medical Practice Act authorizes a special faculty permitholder to practice medicine in without a physician’s and surgeon’s certificate. Specifically, SB 387, as it passed the Senate, replaced the requirement that the facility train 250 resident physicians annually with a requirement to train 25 resident or fellow physicians annually and exempted the facility from a requirement to be accredited by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges.

The Assembly amendments additionally revise provisions governing the composition of a committee established to review and make recommendations to the Medical Board of California regarding applicants applying for special faculty permits. Specifically, the Assembly amendments require the individual on the committee who represents academic medical centers in California to be from a facility that trains a minimum of 250 resident physicians in Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education accredited residencies on an annual basis.

The Assembly amendments also increase the limit on the number of applications for special faculty permits submitted by academic medical centers that the board may approve in any calendar year to 5 applications submitted by each academic medical center.

Vote: 21. Substantial substantive change: yes.
