S.B. No. 1438—Committee on Local Government (Senators Durazo (Chair)) et al.
An act relating to local government.

Legislative Counsel's Digest of Assembly Amendments

SB 1438, as it passed the Senate, revised and recast provisions regulating investment of public funds by specified local agencies to, among other things, authorize investment in commercial paper issued by an entity organized as a federally or state-chartered bank or a federally or state-licensed branch of a foreign bank and in senior unsecured unsubordinated obligations issued or unconditionally guaranteed by the Inter-American Investment Corporation. SB 1438, as it passed the Senate, removed the January 1, 2031, sunset date for investments in United States-issued securities in a period of negative market interest rates, thereby extending that exception indefinitely. SB 1438, as it passed the Senate, also revised and recast provisions that impose various limits on local government investment in commercial paper and removed the January 1, 2031, reduction of the maximum investment to 25% of total investment for certain local governments and agencies with $100,000,000 or more in investment assets. For a county, city and county, or local agency that pools money in deposits or investments with other agencies, SB 1438, as it passed the Senate, authorized an eligible bank headquartered outside the state to submit letters of credit drawn on its regional federal home loan bank.

The Assembly amendments make nonsubstantive changes to the above-described provisions, including updating cross-references.

Vote: 21. Substantial substantive change: no.

43

S.B. No. 1088—Blakespear.

An act relating to health care.

Legislative Counsel's Digest of Assembly Amendments

SB 1088, as it passed the Senate, replaced the term “Physician Orders for Life Sustaining Treatment” with “POLST” or “Portable Orders Listing Scope of Treatment” and authorized a request regarding resuscitative measures to be entered into by an individual with capacity or a health care agent, conservator, or surrogate, as defined, and a physician, nurse practitioner, or physician assistant acting under the supervision of the physician. SB 1088, as it passed the Senate, required the POLST document to contain the date on which it was signed by the health care provider and the patient or their health care agent, conservator, or surrogate but clarified that the failure to include this date would not invalidate an otherwise valid POLST form and specified that a dated POLST form should be treated as more recent than an undated POLST.

The Assembly amendments removed the requirements relating to having the date on the POLST form. The Assembly amendments also require a conservator signing a request regarding resuscitative measures to have health care decisionmaking authority and authorize additional categories of nurse practitioner to sign the document.

S.B. No. 1175—Rubio et al.

An act relating to the Political Reform Act of 1974, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest of Assembly Amendments

SB 1175, as it passed the Senate, amended the Political Reform Act of 1974 to require an individual lobbyist to submit an amended certification or notice of termination directly to the Secretary of State, in lieu of submitting the certification or notice to the lobbyist’s lobbying firm or lobbyist employer for filing with the Secretary of State. SB 1175 would declare that it is to take effect immediately as an urgency statute.

The Assembly amendments make conforming changes to the act’s filing requirements for lobbyist employers and other persons that will become operative when the Secretary of State certifies that the online filing and disclosure system for lobbyist employers and other specified persons is functional, as well as other conforming changes that will become operative one year after this certification.

45

S.B. No. 1344—Cabaldon et al.

An act relating to civil actions.

Legislative Counsel's Digest of Assembly Amendments

SB 1344, as it passed the Senate, provided that, in a civil action brought by a plaintiff to challenge a housing development project that meets or exceeds the requirements for low- or moderate-income housing or a priority care development, a defendant may seek an order requiring the plaintiff to furnish an undertaking as security of not more than $1,000,000. As it passed the Senate, SB 1344 also permitted a defendant in such a civil action to bring a special motion to strike the pleading. As it passed the Senate, SB 1344 required that a special motion be filed within 60 days of service, or later at the court's discretion. As it passed the Senate, SB 1344 required that a hearing on a special motion be scheduled to occur within 30 days of service of the motion.

The Assembly amendments remove the requirement that a hearing on a special motion be scheduled within 30 days of service of the motion.

S.B. No. 799—Allen.

An act relating to joint powers.

Legislative Counsel's Digest of Assembly Amendments

SB 799, as it passed the Senate, required, among other things, the joint powers agreement, that the South Bay Cities Council of Governments is authorized to enter into, to establish the number of directors of the South Bay Regional Housing Trust and the process for appointing directors and filling vacancies.

The Assembly amendments additionally expand the authority of the South Bay Regional Housing Trust to include, among other things, funding the planning and construction of housing for persons and families of moderate income, using any private resources available to it.

49

S.B. No. 927—Choi et al.

An act relating to adoption.

Legislative Counsel's Digest of Assembly Amendments

SB 927, as it passed the Senate, authorized an adoptee of any age, who was adopted via an intercountry adoption in a foreign country, to file a petition to readopt on their own behalf if both the adoptive parent or parents and the adoption agency that facilitated the adoption failed to file that petition.

The Assembly amendments authorize a court to grant a petition for readoption that does not include the documents required for a petition for readoption if the petitioner establishes, by a preponderance of the evidence, (1) that they are the adoptee, (2) that one or more of the required documents cannot be obtained due to the passage of time or other circumstances beyond their control, and (3) the fundamental facts necessary for the court to make the findings required to grant the petition. The Assembly amendments authorize evidence presented to the court for these purposes to include both documentary and nondocumentary evidence, including testimony, declarations, court records, agency records, correspondence, and other corroborating sources of information the court deems sufficient. The Assembly amendments also require the court to notify appropriate agencies when it finds that the adoptee may have been the subject of human trafficking.

Legislative Counsel's Digest of Assembly Amendments

SB 1273, as it passed the Senate, made changes to provisions governing advertisements for an instructional event by a winegrower, California winegrower's agent, wine importer, or their representative, as specified. In this regard, SB 1273, as it passed the Senate, among other things, authorized the advertisement to contain videos up to 60 seconds long and removed a requirement that specified information and any pictures, illustrations, or depictions be relatively inconspicuous in relation to the advertisement as a whole.

The Assembly amendments make similar changes to provisions governing advertisements for an instructional event by certain other alcoholic beverage licensees or their representatives. The Assembly amendments also remove provisions that specify that the advertisement be to the general public and that specify the types of mediums of advertisements that are permitted.
