28

S.B. No. 727—Galgiani.

An act relating to public postsecondary education.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest of Assembly Amendments

SB 727, as it passed the Senate, added to the Donahoe Higher Education Act, among other things, a provision authorizing public postsecondary educational institutions to adopt policies that allow for the use of innovative pricing techniques and payment options for textbooks and other instructional materials.

The Assembly amendments, among other things, provide that each public postsecondary educational institution may consult with students, faculty, and other parties in this regard.

29

S.B. No. 70—Bates.

An act relating to real estate.

Legislative Counsel's Digest of Assembly Amendments

SB 70, as it passed the Senate, provided that a licensed real estate appraiser was not required to comply with provisions of the Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice that provide a limitation on restricted appraisal reports to intended users other than or in addition to the client, if certain requirements were met, including that the consent of the client was obtained in advance, and the licensee's report clearly identifies all intended users.

The Assembly amendments instead make this exemption from compliance with the Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice applicable until January 1, 2020. The Assembly amendments also add a requirement that the licensee's report state that there may be assumptions that the appraiser has not verified that may significantly impact the appraised value of the subject of the report.

31

S.B. No. 481—Pan.

An act relating to redevelopment.

Legislative Counsel's Digest of Assembly Amendments

SB 481, as it passed the Senate, required a physician, skilled nursing facility, or intermediate care facility, before implementing a medical intervention that requires informed consent for a resident who lacks capacity to make health care decisions and there is no person with legal authority able and willing to make those decisions, to notify the resident, orally and in writing, of specified information.

The Assembly amendments instead authorize the successor agency to the Redevelopment Agency of the County of Sacramento to dispose of a specified property previously used as the San Juan Hotel and Mobile Home Park for an amount less than fair market value, provided that the agency require that the property be used for housing affordable to, and occupied by, persons and families of low or moderate income and very low income and extremely low income households, and make findings as to the public purpose served by these provisions as well as to the necessity of a special statute for the successor agency to the Redevelopment Agency of the County of Sacramento.

Vote: 21. Substantial substantive change: yes.
