GOVERNOR'S VETOES

6

S.B. No. 275—Grove.

An act relating to oil and gas.

Vote required: 27

To the Members of the California State Senate:

I am returning Senate Bill 275 without my signature.

This bill would require appointment of the State Oil and Gas Supervisor to be subject to Senate confirmation. I share the Legislature's desire for appointments to be made effectively and transparently, especially when considering California's ambitious and time-sensitive clean energy and carbon neutrality goals.

However, an appointee to this position already undergoes an extensive and exhaustive identification, evaluation, and selection process, a process that ensures the appointee is experienced and fully capable of carrying out our shared policy objectives of protecting public health, safety, and the environment. Additionally, this position falls under the direction and oversight of the Director of Conservation, a gubernatorial appointee that is subject to Senate confirmation.

For these reasons, I am returning this bill without my signature.

Sincerely,

Gavin Newsom

2023

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

10

S.B. No. 833—McGuire.

An act relating to cannabis.

Legislative Counsel's Digest of Assembly Amendments

SB 833, as it passed the Senate, required the Department of Cannabis Control, no later than March 1, 2024, to establish a cannabis licensing fallowing program for cannabis cultivators who choose to reduce or temporarily pause cultivating cannabis under their license and established certain eligibility criteria to participate in the program.

The Assembly amendments delete the contents of the bill and instead require the Department of Cannabis Control, no later than March 1, 2024, to allow a cultivation licensee to change the type of size of a cultivation license or to place a cultivation license in inactive status, as specified. The Assembly amendments also require the department, in implementing these provisions, to allow each licensee a one-time opportunity to change the date of license renewal.

S.B. No. 389—Allen et al.

An act relating to water.

Legislative Counsel's Digest of Assembly Amendments

SB 389, it passed the Senate, authorized, upon specified findings, the State Water Resources Control Board to investigate the diversion and use of water from a stream system to determine whether the diversion and use are based upon appropriation, riparian right, or other basis of right, as specified, and authorized the state board to adopt regulations to implement these provisions.

The Assembly amendments instead authorize the board to investigate and ascertain whether or not a water right is valid and authorize the board to issue an information order in furtherance of an investigation, as executed by the executive director of the board, as specified. The Assembly amendments further authorize a diversion or use of water ascertained to be unauthorized to be enforced as a trespass, as specified.

S.B. No. 68—McGuire.

An act relating to vehicles.

Legislative Counsel's Digest of Assembly Amendments

SB 68, as it passed the Senate, authorized the Department of the California Highway Patrol to, by regulation, allow a driver of a tank vehicle with a capacity of more than 500 gallons transporting flammable liquid to exceed the maximum driving time of 10 hours in a work period during a declared state of emergency if transporting aircraft fuel used for refueling aircraft used in fire suppression or other emergency-related activities, as specified.

The Assembly amendments authorize the department to additionally allow a driver to be exempt from the prohibition against driving any period after having been on duty for 80 hours in any consecutive 8 days in the circumstances described above and makes the provisions applicable to the transport of other fuel types used in emergency-related activities, including fire suppression.

14

S.B. No. 354—Ochoa Bogh.

An act relating to special education.

Legislative Counsel's Digest of Assembly Amendments

SB 354, as it passed the Senate, among other things, required the Commission on Teacher Credentialing to, on or before January 1, 2025, revise its administrative services credential standards and performance expectations to include and strengthen preparation for inclusion, with a focus on, among other things, universal design for learning (UDL) and required administrator preparation programs to ensure faculty are prepared in, among other things, UDL and inclusive practices. SB 354, as it passed the Senate, required, contingent upon an appropriation, the State Department of Education to, on or before March 31, 2025, develop and disseminate joint guidance clarifying the ways in which inclusive classrooms and placements may be staffed under current law, as provided, and required the department to, on or before March 31, 2025, submit a report to the Legislature on recommendations for statutory or regulatory changes necessary to eliminate barriers to the staffing of inclusive placements, as provided.

The Assembly amendments change the date by which the commission is required to revise the administrative services credential standards and performance expectations described above from January 1, 2025, to instead be June 30, 2025. The Assembly amendments change the date by which the department is required to develop and disseminate joint guidance clarifying the ways in which inclusive classrooms and placements may be staffed from March 31, 2025, to instead be March 31, 2027. The amendments change the date by which the department is required to submit a report to the Legislature on recommendations for statutory or regulatory changes necessary to eliminate barriers to the staffing of inclusive placements from March 31, 2025, to instead be March 31, 2026, make conforming changes, and make the requirement to provide that report contingent upon appropriation by the Legislature.

S.B. No. 722—Ochoa Bogh.

An act relating to daycare facilities.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest of Assembly Amendments

SB 722, as it passed the Senate, required the State Department of Social Services, on or before January 1, 2025, to create a template form for plans of operations and incidental medical services plans. SB 722, as it passed the Senate, prohibited a child care provider who completes and submits all sections of the incidental medical services plan template described above from being subject to professional review, liable in civil action, or subject to criminal prosecution for the administration of medication, unless that administration constitutes gross negligence or willful or malicious conduct.

The Assembly amendments delete the provisions related to professional review, civil liability, or criminal prosecution described above and authorize a licensed child daycare facility that submits to the department a completed incidental medical services plan using the template form described above to enroll a child prior to departmental approval of the plan.

S.B. No. 34—Umberg et al.

An act relating to surplus land.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest of Assembly Amendments

SB 34, as it passed the Senate, until January 1, 2030, required the County of Orange, or any city located within Orange County, if notified by the Department of Housing and Community Development that its planned sale or lease of surplus land is in violation of existing law relating to surplus land disposal, to cure or correct the alleged violation within 60 days, as prescribed. SB 34, as it passed the Senate, prohibited an Orange County jurisdiction that has not cured or corrected any alleged violation from disposing of the parcel until the department determines that it has complied with existing law or deems the alleged violation not to be a violation.

The Assembly amendments impose the bill’s requirements on the planned disposal of surplus land rather than the planned sale or lease of surplus land. The Assembly amendments additionally authorize a local agency that receives a notice of violation from the department to provide to the department a statement describing the actions taken to cure or correct the alleged violation within 60 days of receipt of the notice, and require the department, if it receives that statement, to make specified determinations and notify the local agency of those determinations within 30 days of receipt of the statement. The Assembly amendments also replace references to “Orange County” to “County of Orange.”

S.B. No. 229—Umberg.

An act relating to surplus land.

Legislative Counsel's Digest of Assembly Amendments

SB 229, as it passed the Senate, required a local agency that is disposing of a parcel by sale or lease and has received a notification from the Department of Housing and Community Development that it is in violation with regard to the parcel to hold an open and public session to review and consider the substance of the notice of violation. SB 229, as it passed the Senate, required notice of the public session to be disclosed, among other places, on the local agency's internet website.

The Assembly amendments impose the bill's requirements on the disposal of surplus land by sale rather than on the disposal of a parcel by sale or lease. The Assembly amendments exempt from the provisions of this bill a local agency that ceases to dispose of surplus land after receiving a notification from the department that it is in violation. The Assembly amendments impose the requirement to disclose notice on the local agency's internet website only if the local agency maintains one. The Assembly amendments also replace references to public "session" with public "meeting."

Legislative Counsel's Digest of Assembly Amendments

SB 297, as it passed the Senate, required a majority of the proponents of a statewide initiative or referendum measure to file a written notice with the Secretary of State to withdraw a statewide initiative or referendum measure after the petition had been filed with the appropriate elections official. SB 297 also authorized the proponents to file a notice of withdrawal with the Secretary of State that is contingent upon the enactment of a particular legislative measure, as specified, and made withdrawal of the initiative or referendum measure effective once the legislative measure identified in the notice of contingent withdrawal is given a chapter number by the Secretary of State.

The Assembly amendments require the Secretary of State to deem a written notice of contingent withdrawal effective if the legislative measure identified in the notice is enacted and given a chapter number before the Secretary of State has certified that the statewide initiative or referendum measure has qualified for the ballot, as specified. The Assembly amendments also provide that a notice of contingent withdrawal will not be given effect if the legislative measure is not given a chapter number before the Secretary of State has certified that the initiative or referendum has qualified for the ballot, as specified.

S.B. No. 465—Wahab et al.

An act relating to public social services.

Legislative Counsel's Digest of Assembly Amendments

SB 465, as it passed the Senate, required the State Department of Social Services to post on its internet website a list of resources available for refugees that includes, among other things, public transportation, financial literacy information, affordable housing and rental assistance programs, and information on how to get a special immigrant visa.

The Assembly amendments require the list of resources to be posted on a single page of the department's website, and to be limited to available state resources for refugees, without specification. The Assembly amendments also require the page to include a link to the internet website of each county human services agency, and require each county human services agency to post on its internet website a single page with a list of resources available for refugees. The Assembly amendments authorize the list of county resources to include, but not be limited to, the previously specified resources, but delete from the list information on how to get a special immigrant visa.

S.B. No. 493—Min et al.

An act relating to air pollution.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest of Assembly Amendments

SB 493, as it passed the Senate, required a specified assessment of the fuel cell electric vehicle fueling infrastructure and fuel production to additionally include an assessment of storage and transport facilities, and a specified assessment of the electric vehicle charging infrastructure to additionally include electric system infrastructure and electric generation.

The Assembly amendments additionally require the State Energy Resources Conservation and Development Commission to publish a determination regarding the adequacy of completed or planned charging or fueling sites for the 5 years following the completion of a required initial statewide assessment and the findings of the electric vehicle charging infrastructure assessment, as provided, to identify any charging or fueling site deficiencies and categorize those deficiencies by refueling speed and by type of facility, as either a public facility or a private facility, and to update the determination at least once every 2 years. The Assembly amendments delete a requirement that the State Air Resources Board incorporate the findings of a specified assessment into a strategic plan and post the plan on or before December 31, 2026, on the state board’s internet website. The Assembly amendments also require specified emissions goals recommended by the State Air Resources Board to include the goals established in Executive Order No. N-79-20 for the transition of medium- and heavy-duty fleets to zero-emission vehicles and require the state board’s updates to the mobile source strategy to include a strategic plan to meet the deadlines in Executive Order No. N-79-20 for the transition of medium- and heavy-duty fleets to zero-emission vehicles.

An act relating to pupil safety, and declaring the urgency thereof, to take effect immediately.

Legislative Counsel's Digest of Assembly Amendments

SB 531, as it passed the Senate, required the Student Aid Commission and the Department of Financial Protection and Innovation to prominently display a link to a specified financial literacy document created by the Federal Student Aid Information Center on their respective internet websites, as provided.

The Assembly amendments remove those provisions. The Assembly amendments instead, if certain requirements are met, exempt an employee of any entity that has a contract with a local educational agency, and that offers work experience opportunities for pupils or workplace placements as part of a pupil's individualized education program, from the requirement that any employee who interacts with pupils, outside of the immediate supervision and control of the pupil's parent or guardian or a school employee, must have a valid criminal records summary, as provided.

An act relating to juveniles.

Legislative Counsel's Digest of Assembly Amendments

SB 545, as it passed the Senate, specified additional factors that the juvenile court may consider with respect to a minor's criminal sophistication, when deciding whether a minor should be transferred to a court of criminal jurisdiction.

The Assembly amendments prohibit the court from transferring the case to a court of criminal jurisdiction if certain criteria are met and, prior to transfer, instead require the court to evaluate certain factors regarding, among other things, the minor's previous delinquent history, prior successful rehabilitation attempts, and criminal sophistication.

S.B. No. 548—Niello.

An act relating to retirement.

Legislative Counsel's Digest of Assembly Amendments

SB 548, as it passed the Senate, amended provisions of the Public Employees' Retirement Law (PERL) to authorize a county and the trial court located within the county to elect to separate their joint Public Employees' Retirement System (PERS) contract into individual contracts and prescribed a process for this. SB 548, as it passed the Senate, prohibited the separation from being a cause for modification of employee retirement benefits. SB 548, as it passed the Senate, required the system's board of administration, within its existing resources, to do a specified computation of assets and liabilities for a county and trial court seeking to separate their joint contract. SB 548, for the purposes of the California Public Employees' Pension Reform Act of 2013 (PEPRA), authorized a county and a trial court to provide employees the defined benefit plan or formula that those employees received from their respective employers prior to the exercise of the option to separate.

The Assembly amendments make an election to separate a joint contract under the above-described circumstances irrevocable and, upon separation of the joint contract, make a county and trial court ineligible to reestablish a joint contract. The Assembly amendments also revise the above-described provisions requiring the board to perform a separate computation of the assets and liabilities to specify that this computation is to occur upon request and not to exceed once every five years in accordance with specified procedures. The Assembly amendments make various other conforming changes, including revising the timeframe for separating a joint contract.

The bill exempted certain entities and transactions from its provisions.

The Assembly amendments, among other things, apply the bill's provisions to small business owners in addition to small businesses. The amendments add an exception to the fee for accepting or processing a payment required by the terms of the commercial financing contract as an automated clearinghouse transfer debit. The amendments add specified transactions to the exemptions from the bill's provisions.

Legislative Counsel's Digest of Assembly Amendments

SB 805, as it passed the Senate, expanded the criteria for a “qualified autism service professional,” for purposes of coverage for behavioral health treatment, to include a behavioral health professional, psychology associate, associate marriage and family therapist, associate clinical social worker, or associate professional clinical counselor. SB 805 required the State Department of Developmental Services to adopt emergency regulations to address the use of behavioral health professionals and behavioral health paraprofessionals in group practice provider behavioral intervention services.

The Assembly amendments instead expand the criteria for a qualified autism service provider to include a psychological associate, associate marriage and family therapist, associate clinical social worker, or associate professional clinical counselor, and require these positions to meet the criteria for a Behavioral Health Professional. The Assembly amendments require the department to adopt regulations, on or before July 1, 2026, to address the use of Behavioral Health Professionals and Behavioral Health Paraprofessionals in behavioral health treatment group practice.
